

	Era	Alternate Event	Outcome	Key Figures	Implications	Cultural Impact
	Ancient Rome	If Julius Caesar had not been assassinated	Rome becomes an empire under his rule	Julius Caesar, Mark Antony	Extended peace and stability in the Mediterranean	Influence on governance and military strategy
	Industrial Revolution	If steam power was never developed	Continued reliance on manual labor and animal power	James Watt, George Stephenson	Slower technological advancements	Different societal structure and urbanization rates
	World War II	If Hitler had not invaded the USSR	A prolonged war in Europe with possible Axis victory	Adolf Hitler, Joseph Stalin	Potential Axis dominance in Europe	Shift in global power balance and technology race
	Cold War	If the Cuban Missile Crisis escalated	Possible nuclear disaster	John F. Kennedy, Nikita Khrushchev	Global panic and accelerated arms race	Cultural movements focused on peace and disarmament
	Space Race	If the Soviet Union had landed on the moon first	Increased global influence of the USSR	Yuri Gagarin, Neil Armstrong	Shift in American and Soviet policies on technology	Impact on global space policies and collaborations
	American Civil War	If the Confederacy had seceded successfully	A divided United States	Abraham Lincoln, Jefferson Davis	Long-term implications on civil rights and segregation	Cultural divisions in American identity
	Renaissance	If Leonardo da Vinci had completed all his works	Significantly advanced technology and art	Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo	Impact on the enlightenment and scientific discovery	Rise of modern art and technology
	French Revolution	If Louis XVI had successfully resisted the revolution	Establishment of a constitutional monarchy	Louis XVI, Maximilien Robespierre	Continued monarchy and slow reform	Different paths for democracy and modern governance
	Ancient Egypt	If Cleopatra had allied with the Parthians	A different power balance in the Mediterranean	Cleopatra, Julius Caesar	Possible shift in Roman expansion	Cultural blend of Egyptian and Parthian influences
	Medieval Europe	If the Black Death hadn't occurred	Different population dynamics and societal structures	Pope Urban VI, various monarchs	Continued feudalism for longer periods	Impact on Renaissance timing and social change